

The Specified skills evaluation exam for construction industry in Japan will continue to be held as usual until November 2025. However, from December 2025, the exam will be held at 95 Prometric test centers across Japan, allowing you to take the exam at a location closer to you than before.

- Exam to be performed: The Specified skills evaluation exam (i) & (ii)
- Reservations open: Friday, October 3rd, 10:00 AM
 - The method of applying for the exam will change to applying through the Prometric website. Please see the Prometric website for details.
- Scores displayed on the score report:
 - Score reports for domestic exams from December onwards will show scores for both the written and practical exams.
- Retake:
 - Until November, you could take the exam once per calendar month, but from December you can retake the exam 30 days or more after your last exam date.
- Prohibition of duplicate Prometric ID acquisition:
 - If one person obtains multiple IDs and takes the exam, their exam results will be invalid and they will lose their eligibility to take the exam for a certain period of time, so please be careful not to do this.

JAC Examination Office